

SAN ANTONIO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT AIR SERVICE

The Aviation Department created the Air Service Incentive Program to keep the airport competitive by encouraging airlines to increase nonstop service to and from SAT. The incentives include marketing funds and fee waivers to help new or existing carriers enter or expand in the market. Carriers must meet certain criteria to qualify targeted markets, including:

Washington, D.C. – Reagan National
New York LaGuardia
Sacramento
Raleigh-Durham
Orange County

San Jose, CA
San Juan, PR
Hawaii
Pittsburgh
Indianapolis

Cincinnati
Cleveland
Columbus
